

Mercer Sanitary District Wastewater Treatment Plant

The Mercer wastewater treatment facility consists of grit removal and screening, followed by sequencing batch reactors which discharge to seepage cells. There are three groundwater monitoring wells around the system. Sludge is treated in an aerobic digester, stored in a concrete tank, and spread as a soil conditioner on approved cropland. The diagram below shows the treatment units and sampling locations.

